I am going to keep a larger and better stock of drugs, medicines, toilet articles, stationery, cigars and tobacco than I ever have, and will give my customers the best goods, and good reliable service with honest prices, but will keep my capital in my own hands. When you want the best go to Hinds' Drug Store. No substitution there.

Yours very truly,
Z. T. HINDS.

Miss Wilkie Langford of Hilham, who has been visiting in this city, returned home Saturday.

The Cookeville Roller Mills has recently put in the best and latest machinery for making corn meal.

J. W. Gillem is opening up 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 cent counters—the best bargains in Cookeville.

Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, I. O. O. F., held a splendid meeting on May 27th, Jas. M. Haynes, N. G., presiding, with some 30 brothers in attendance.

Bro. J. H. Hodge was reported to be in a serious condition. Bro. R. F. Pippin was not heard from and the presumption is that he is still improving. Bro. E. D. Staley has improved until he is able to go out driving, and hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

The First degree was conferred upon one applicant. The Second degree will be conferred upon two applicants at the next meeting.

Bro. H. M. Speakman was granted a transfer certificate to McAlester Lodge in Oklahoma. Bro. J. A. Hudgens will move in a few days to Guthrie, Okla.

More than 125 members of this lodge are up with dues for this term. It is earnestly hoped the balance of the membership will get in line during the next month. If such was to be it would be remarkably remarkable. Therefore get a hustle on yourselves, boys, and let the lodge do some bragging. The largest lodge outside of the cities, with its entire membership entitled to the p.w. for next term, would be something to be proud of and brag about.

Election of officers next meeting. A full attendance is desired.

The decoration at Cookeville Cemetery first Sunday in June at 10 a. m.

NOTICE

The person who borrowed my step ladder will please bring same home at once and save trouble. J. W. Gillem

The decoration at West Graveyard last Tuesday was largely attended and passed off pleasantly. Graves of Federal and Confederate soldiers were decorated.

A. W. Boyd and E. H. Boyd have formed a partnership under the firm name of Boyd & Boyd, and will practice law in Cookeville, having taken offices over Hind's drug store. Both gentlemen are widely known, and will undoubtedly build up a large practice.

I am cutting out the credit business, except with a few people who settle when requested to do so. I have not time to look after little accounts. I will not extend any more credit to those who have turned down my requests for settlement. Some people are always ready and willing to settle, to these we will extend favors.

Respectfully,
Z. T. HINDS.

Piano Voting Contest

The Monterey Mercantile Co. are conducting a piano voting contest, which is getting well under way. All persons who buy goods at their store may vote for anyone they choose, the lady receiving the most votes getting the piano.

The Herald will participate in the contest, also. Every subscriber to the Herald at 25c a year may cast 250 votes, and for every dollar paid the Herald for printing or advertising 1,000 votes.

To help make things interesting the Herald will give a bonus of 10,000 votes to the candidate who sends in the most subscriptions during June.
